

WESTERLY

Ten more recruits in Westerly's new fifth company, C. A. R. I. N. G., were examined by Major Blair at the state armory on Dixon street, Friday night, and the entire company of 88 men were inoculated and vaccinated. Interest in the new outfit is rapidly increasing and it is expected that a full strengthed company of 100 men will be recruited before the first of next week. The success of the artillery company has given rise to rumors that an engineer outfit will soon be organized here.

The Westerly K. C. baseball team will play two games over the week-end, with the New London Independents and the Broadways of Pawtucket. Both visiting aggregations are reputed to be strong teams, and the fans are promised plenty of excitement in the games. At the New London game today (Saturday) Kiernan will do the twirling for the locals while Edwards, who has yet to meet a defeat, will do the mound duty Sunday.

No cases were tried at the regular session of the Third District court Friday morning. Judge Oliver H. Williams presiding. One new writ was entered, an action of trespass and ejectment by Ida May Shute of Boston, Mass., against Charles E. Bennett of Richmond.

James M. Pennington, chairman of Westerly Red Cross, has received a communication from national headquarters requesting aid for the stricken people of Pueblo, Colo., where the flood has caused untold hardship. No systematic campaign of the town is to be made for funds, but all who are able to help in the cause are being asked to send donations to Lewis Stanton, treasurer of the local branch.

In the fastest game of baseball played this year, Westerly High school was defeated Thursday afternoon by East Greenwich academy, at East Greenwich, 5 to 2. Both teams displayed a brand of ball in the field, but both the East Greenwich pitcher, was too much for Westerly, and held the local boys to four scattered hits. Stenhouse on the mound for Westerly, allowed five runs, three earned, but six hits, and striking out nine men, but his own errors were mainly responsible for his defeat.

The score by innings: 1 0 0 2 1 3-5 East Greenwich. 0 0 0 1 0 0 1-2 Westerly. B. G. A. Booth and McDermott; W. H. S. Stenhouse and M. L. Hinkley.
